

Human Rights and Mega Sporting Events in the Commonwealth

Monday 31 October 2016

9am – 4:30pm

KPMG, Level 38, Tower 3

International Towers, 300 Barangaroo Avenue, Sydney

AGENDA

Facilitator: Richard Boele – Partner, KPMG Banarra*

9am Registration

9:30am Welcome to Country and opening remarks

- Professor Gillian Triggs – President, Australian Human Rights Commission
- Kevin Cocks - Commissioner, Anti-Discrimination Commission QLD
- Welcome to Country: Ann Weldon - Board Member, Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council

9:45am Opening panel – Setting the scene

- Lynne Anderson - CEO, Australian Paralympic Committee
- David Grevemberg – CEO, Commonwealth Games Federation (via skype)
- John Morrison - Chief Executive, Institute for Human Rights and Business
- Sam Mostyn – Corporate Director and former AFL Commissioner

11am Morning tea

11:15am Workshop session 1 – Commitment

- Nikki Dryden – former Olympic swimmer and human rights lawyer
- Mark Peters – CEO, Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games Corporation
- David Rutherford – Chief Commissioner, NZ Human Rights Commission
- Kenny Stewart – former Government Relations Manager, Glasgow 2014 Commonwealth Games Organising Committee (via skype)

12:30pm Lunch

1:30pm Workshop session 2 – Challenges

- Alison Elliott – Senior Policy Adviser, UNICEF Australia
- Mark Morey – Secretary, Unions NSW
- Fiona Walmsley - Sustainability Manager, Woolworths

2:45pm Afternoon tea

3pm Workshop session 3 – Opportunities

- Kath Elliot - Director and Advocacy Chair, Australian Womensport and Recreation Association
- Brendan Schwab – Head, UNI World Athletes
- Liesl Tesch (TBC) – Paralympian and Co-Founder, Sports Matters
- Ross Wetherbee – Senior Program Manager, Pride in Diversity

4:15pm Concluding observations

- Richard Boele – Partner, KPMG Banarra
- John Morrison – Chief Executive, Institute of Human Rights and Business

4:30pm Close