The Access and Inclusion Statement of intent has been developed as a commitment by the Shire to enhance inclusion by providing access for People with a disability to its services, functions and facilities. The following documents were referred to:

“The Shire of Goomalling endeavours to provide universally accessible and inclusive services and facilities for all people within the community”

Indicators of disability within the Shire of Goomalling

Australia's expanding ageing population is set to impact upon the community over the next two decades. An ageing population increases the likelihood of individuals acquiring a disability including life changes, heredity and environmental influences.

The West Australian Disability Services Act (1993) defines a disability as a condition that:

- Is attributable to an intellectual, cognitive, neurological, sensory or physical impairment or a combination of those impairments;
- Is permanent or likely to be permanent
- Which may or may not be episodic in nature; and which results in;
 - A substantially reduced capacity of the person for communications, social interaction, learning or mobility ; and
 - A need for continuing support services.

The Shire of Goomalling are fortunate to have a Home and Community Care (HACC) service located in the district supporting people with a wide array of support services. There are a few with a disability that frequently use the Shire for a wide range of reasons whether that is for recreation, to visit or for employment opportunities.

There are an estimated 985 people residing in the Shire of Goomalling according to the Australian Bureau of Statistics (Census 2011).

Shire of Goomalling Key Social Indicators:

Age

The total population for the Shire of Goomalling was 985 (Census 2011) it is estimated that residents aged 60 years and over represented 24.5% of the total population.

The median age of the population in Goomalling is 42 years, which is older than that in the region and older than that in the state. Compared with WA, Goomalling now has a smaller proportion of people aged between 20 and 35.

Indigenous people represent 7.5% of the total population, which is much more than that in the region and the state.

Extent and Type of Disability

There are a small number of known people residing with some type of disability in the Shire.

The most prominent type of disability was having a physical disability followed by a sensory disability. In addition there are some with an intellectual or psychiatric disability. Many People with a disability may have one or more disabilities.

Recent research findings from the report "Barriers to respite, in-home support and recreation: a Community Development approach", reaffirmed synthetic estimates identifying physical and sensory disabilities as being significantly higher in comparison to other types of disabilities.

Health

Goomalling has a hospital, a resident Doctor, Pharmacy, HACC and PATS Services. Quamby Lodge is for semi-permanent aged care and Sunshine Nursing Home is for acute aged care. There are also 13 aged persons units located close to the hospital.

Further enhanced facilities can be accessed at the Northam Regional Hospital, 50km south of Goomalling.

Income Support

Socio-economic

The unemployment rate was relatively stable in the March 2013 quarter in Goomalling, while it was relatively stable in the region and decreased slightly in the state. In the previous three years unemployment rates in Goomalling were lower than those in the region and the state.

The percentage of those who left school before year 12 in Goomalling was 65%, which is a similar statistic to that in the region and greater than that in the state. In Goomalling, the percentage of people who have difficulty with spoken English is much less than that in the region and the state.

The socio-economic indicators suggest there are no obvious levels of advantage or disadvantage in Goomalling, compared with the region and the state. The median individual weekly income was $1375 to $1687, compared with $2,257 - $2,497 in the region and the state. The Index of Advantage - Disadvantage was 944, which is similar to that in the region but less than that in the state.

The Index of Disadvantage is derived from attributes such as low income, low educational attainment, high unemployment and dwellings without motor vehicles.

Social Security entitlement being received by was the Aged Pension followed by Unemployment Benefits and Disability Support Pensions and persons in receipt of a Carer Payment.

Household Type

There a number of residents living in a lone person household which increases the risk of social isolation, this feeling can be intensified in small community due to limited accessibility to support services and lack of diversity in recreational/social opportunities.

Relevant Legislation, Codes and Guidelines

Disability Services Act 1993 (DSA)

The Western Australian Disability Services Act 1993 requires all State and Local Government authorities to implement a Disability Access and Inclusion Plan.

The Disability Service Regulations Amendments (2004) dictate how the provisions of the Act are applied to Disability Access and Inclusion Plans which includes:

- Standards for disability access and inclusion plans.
- Information in reports about disability access and inclusion plans
- Publication of disability access and inclusion plans
- Procedure for public consultation by authorities.

Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act 1992 DDA

The DDA makes it unlawful to directly or indirectly discriminate or impose unjustifiable hardship against a person with any form of disability (i.e. Physical, Intellectual, Sensory, Psychiatric and Neurological). Discrimination as defined by the DDA (1992) is documented as having broad legislative application in:

- (a) work, accommodation, education, access to premises, clubs and sport: and
- (b) the provision of goods and services, facilities, and land : and
- (c) The administration of Commonwealth laws and programs.

The DDA applies to public and private sectors and allows people to complain to Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission if they encounter discrimination.

It is the intention of the DDA to eliminate, as far as possible discriminatory practices, but also to promote recognition and acceptance within the community of the fundamental rights of People with a disability.

The DDA covers a disability which a person has now, may have in the future, had in the past or is assumed to have. The DDA also makes it unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis that their associate (partner, carer, friend and family member or business partner) has a disability.

The DDA covers existing premises, including heritage buildings, those under construction and future premises. The definition includes not only buildings but parks, pathways and transport systems, streetscapes and play grounds.

Building Code of Australia (BCA)

The BCA references various Australian Standards and Codes to enable the achievement and maintenance of acceptable standards of structural sufficiency, safety (including safety from fire), health and amenity for the benefit of the community now and in the future.

Part D# of the BCA (Volume One) titled “Access for People with a disability” determines which types (Class) and parts of buildings must comply with the access requirements currently referenced by the code.

The BCA is currently under review in the areas of access to align better to the requirements of the Disability Discrimination Act.

Australian Standard (AS) – Design for Access and Mobility.

AS 1428 (Parts 1-4) is an important reference standard which prescribes the basic requirements for physical access for use in the planning, development and construction of all buildings and facilities. Part 1 is a mandatory requirement, as references under the BCA.

The objective of the standard is to provide building designers and users (architects, property owners, regulators and the like) with the minimum design requirements for new building work, to enable access for People with a disability. The Australian Standard should also be used when providing improved or amended access to existing buildings and is usually used by professional access advisors as the basis for comprehensive access audits to identify access barriers across a wide range of premises.

For more information on relevant legislation, codes and guidelines refer to Appendix A: Key Contact Service Providers.
