

The Conference of State Parties

The Conference of State Parties is a meeting about human rights.

COSP for short.

At COSP, countries will talk about the human rights of people with disability.

Human rights are things that everyone must have like

- food
- water
- being treated fairly and equally

We want people with disability to come to COSP to talk about their human rights.

COSP will be in New York from 11 to 13 June 2024.

How to apply

If you would like to go to COSP you can

- write a letter
- make an Easy Read letter
- make a voice message
- make a video

You can apply by following the instructions on the Australian Human Rights Commission website.

When you apply you will need to talk about

- who you are
- what you do
- why you should go
- if you need funding to get there

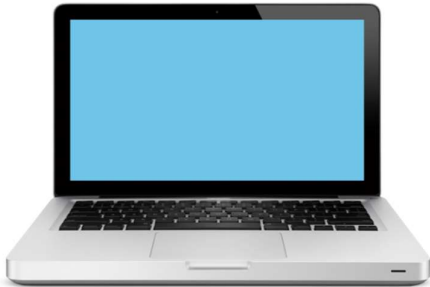

Funding means when someone gives you money for something important.

We can fund things like

- plane tickets
- hotels
- technology
- other important things

Technology means a device that can help you do something like a

- computer
- phone

You can ask someone you trust to help you apply.
