

The Conference of State Parties

The Conference of State Parties is a meeting about human rights.

COSP for short.

Human rights are things that everyone must have like

- food
- water
- being treated fairly

At COSP countries will talk about the rights of people with disability.

We want people with disability to come to COSP talk about their human rights.

COSP will be in New York on 13 to 15 June 2023.

How to apply

If you would like to go to COSP you can

- write a letter
- make an Easy Read letter
- make a voice message
- make a video

When you apply you will need to talk about

- who you are
- what you do
- why you should go
- if you need funds to get there

Funds means when someone gives you money for something important.

We can fund things like

- plane tickets
- hotels
- technology
- other important things

Technology means a device that can help you do something like a

- computer
- phone

You can ask someone you trust to help you apply.

You will need to apply through a workplace that is led by people with disability.

This could be a place like

- National Ethnic Disability Alliance
- First Peoples Disability Network
- Women With Disabilities Australia
- People With Disability Australia
- Council for Intellectual Disability

You can say how you will share information about COSP.

This could be

- online
- with people you know
- through your disability provider

When you apply you must say if you would like to be a part of the

- General Delegation
- The Emerging Young Leaders

The General Delegation is for people who are 36 or older.

The Emerging Young Leaders Delegation is for people who are younger than 36.

You can say if you would like to be a part of the meeting

- online
- in person

You need to apply before 4 November.

Australian
Human Rights
Commission
